

FMA Student Program Benefits

Individual Student Membership Benefits

The Financial Management Association offers students an opportunity to be part of an exclusive network of finance professionals, practitioners and students around the world. Offering more value than virtually any other student organization, individual student membership with FMA provides resources for job searching, careers in finance, finance certifications, furthering education, networking and much more. (Note – Local FMA chapter dues typically do not include access to FMA International's resources and exclusive content.) Look at some of the many benefits FMA members receive with their individual membership:

- Exclusive access to online resource, Careers in Finance
- Subscription to FMA's flagship publication, Financial Management
- Exclusive access to members-only sections of the FMA student website including:
 - Financial Management
 - FMA Membership Directory
 - Forecast competition
- Job Search tool, FMA Online Career Guide
- Participation in FMA's annual student conference, the Finance Leaders' Conference, held each spring
- Electronic membership with the American Association of Individual Investors (AAII ($29 value, for FREE))
- National Honor Society and Collegiate Fellows recognition
- Access to the Journal of Applied Corporate Finance at a discounted rate of $20 per year (a $100 savings)

Chapter Benefits and Support

Local FMA chapters allow students an enhanced opportunity to network with their peers, professors and finance professionals in their area. All FMA chapters receive detailed, comprehensive information on running a successful and effective chapter. Take a look at some of the many benefits of having a FMA student chapter:
