Melissa L. Gruys

Dean, Monte Ahuja College of Business at Cleveland State University

TWEET SHARE MORE

Cleveland State University in May named Melissa L. Gruys as dean of its Monte Ahuja College of Business.

Gruys joined the university July 1. She came to Cleveland State from the Doermer School of Business at Purdue University Fort Wayne, where she served as dean and a professor of management.

Cleveland State called Gruys “an experienced academic administrator, scholar and researcher” and noted that she “has published over 20 peer-reviewed journal articles, has taught courses in human resource management, management, and organizational behavior, and has received numerous awards for teaching, research and service activities.”
