

2022 – 2023 School year Real Estate Investment Banking Research Intern
Cleveland, Ohio

Job Description

Westwood Real Estate Capital is seeking an intern to assist in growing and maintaining internal databases, underwriting and packaging loan transactions and to become an integral part of our team. Westwood Real Estate Capital is a real estate investment banking company that assists clients in securing long term mortgages for their investment real estate.

Job Responsibilities

- Receive ongoing training designed to help you succeed
- Work directly with business leaders and professionals on various projects and assignments
- Convey information both in writing and orally
- Get results be accountable, responsible for the output of one's effort

Work Hours and Benefits

- Hours are flexible and set by candidate
- Work to be completed in the office located in Independence, OH or remote, or any combination as set by candidate and internal team
- Encounter new opportunities and challenges that will prepare you for your career
- Build a professional network and interact with industry leaders across the country

Intern Qualifications / Skills

- Proficient using Excel
- Comfortable using and growing a database as well as maintaining data
- Working independently as well as in a team situation

Education, Experience

- Needs to be officially enrolled in undergraduate or graduate post-secondary education program.

Please submit your resume via email to the attention of Heather Mattei at heather.mattei@westwoodrecapital.com